February is National Career and Technical Education(CTE) Month.

This week is national FCCLA Week.

Wisconsin has six state and nationally recognized CTSOs that are intra-curricular (connected directly to the classroom). All CTSOs include leadership development elements as well as competitive events in related technical skills and leadership. Please take the time to see what FCCLA and FFA have to offer you here at WF.

1. Congratulations to Doc Harley who won yesterday's Olympic Trivia: Doc correctly answered 17 years old for Red Gerard's age. Please see Mrs. Stelter for your prize. TODAY'S OLYMPIC Trivia: Last night was a big night for the United States in Women's Snowboarding Half Pipe. Arielle Gold took the bronze medal and the youngest woman to ever win an Olympic Snowboarding. Gold Medal winner had an impressive score of 98.5. What is the name of this Gold Medalist who completed back to back 1080s on her final victory run? To participate, write your name and answer on the paper provided outside Mrs. Stelter's classroom and place into the red container. All staff/students can participate, Limited to one entry per day. Good luck!

2. Any girl interested in playing traveling softball this summer, please pick up registration forms from Mr. Breuer.

3. There will be an FCCLA meeting TOMORROW during ELT in Ms. Wilson's room.

4. The Science Fair is THURSDAY at 4:30 PM in the MS cafeteria.

5. FFA members interested in showing and selling a market animal at the Waupaca County Fair MUST attend a mandatory meeting the final date is THURSDAY. Please see Ms. P for more details.

6. Yearbooks are on sale now. Forms are available at the office and orders are due MARCH 10. Check the sheet on the office window to see if you ordered one. Don't be disappointed on the last day of school when you don't have a yearbook!

7. Attention all WF Middle and High School students. Want to check out the last 2 home high school basketball games of the year? And watch them for free? The Weyauwega-Fremont Girls Basketball Team will host Amherst on THURSDAY, February 15th while the Boys will host the Wild Rose Wild Cats on THURSDAY, February 22nd. Show your ID to the ticket taker and you will be admitted free. You must have your ID to get in free. Come out and support your basketball teams before the season is over. Staff, if you show your ids, you will be admitted free as well. WF Pride!!
